

Our Family

Childs' Name

Family information (Significant family member's grandparents, siblings, friends)

Beliefs and practices

It is not necessary to know religious beliefs although families may share this. Some may have strong beliefs about peace and social justice. Information relating to special foods or celebrations can be helpful.

Everyday experiences

Popular media culture, sport, play with siblings, visits to family members, family outings, friends to play with.

Literacy practices

Different languages spoken with different parents or family members. Aboriginal dialects. Television and video/DVD, card and board games, shopping, commuting, computer games, shared book experiences, songs, conversations.

Family perspectives on play and learning

Explore the family's expectations and perspectives

Community groups and events

Any interest or involvement the family may have in community activities

Expertise

Any hobbies, interests or skills that family members may be willing to share within the program.

Any additional information you wish to share (Feel free to use back of sheet)